CARIBBEAN JOURNAL OF EDUCATION

VOL. 11, 1984

AUTHOR INDEX

1) Beckles, Hilary: The Literate Few: An Historical Sketch of the Slavery Origins of Black Elites in the English West Indies. P. 19.

2) Devonish, Hubert: Language-Planning in the Creole-Speaking Caribbean. P. 202.

3) Fincham, Alan & Halliwell, Jim: The Use of Radio in Continuing Medical Education at the Professional Level for Rural Health Care Workers. P. 218.

4) Glasgow, Joyce: Report on the Subregional Workshop on Teacher Training in Environmental Education for the Caribbean. P. 48.

5) Gordon, Hopeton: University and Nation-Building in the Commonwealth Caribbean: Early Commitments. P. 184.

6) Leo-Rhynie, Elsa: Prediction of A-Level Performance from Past Performance and Teachers' Estimates. P. 36.

7) Mitchelmore, Michael C.: Prediction of Performance in Jamaican Teachers' Colleges. P. 1.

8) Morrissey, Michael: Teacher Participation in Curriculum Development in a Third World Country: Lessons of a Sixth Form Geography Project. P. 143.

9) Salmon, Hazel: Analysis of Students' Syntactic Errors in Spanish: A Pedagogical Orientation. P. 89.

10) Stimpson, Alison: Opinions of Primary and All-Age School Teachers Concerning Art in Education. P. 118.

11) Thompson, Mertel: Teaching Literacy to Creole-Speakers: Problems and Possibilities. P. 158.

CARIBBEAN JOURNAL OF EDUCATION

VOL. 11, 1984

AUTHOR INDEX

1) Beckles, Hilary: The Literate Few: An Historical Sketch of the Slavery Origins of Black Elites in the English West Indies. P. 19.

2) Devonish, Hubert: Language-Planning in the Creole-Speaking Caribbean. P. 202.

3) Fincham, Alan & Halliwell, Jim: The Use of Radio in Continuing Medical Education at the Professional Level for Rural Health Care Workers. P. 218.

4) Glasgow, Joyce: Report on the Subregional Workshop on Teacher Training in Environmental Education for the Caribbean. P. 48.

5) Gordon, Hopeton: University and Nation-Building in the Commonwealth Caribbean: Early Commitments. P. 184.

6) Leo-Rhynie, Elsa: Prediction of A-Level Performance from Past Performance and Teachers' Estimates. P. 36.

7) Mitchelmore, Michael C.: Prediction of Performance in Jamaican Teachers' Colleges. P. 1.

8) Morrissey, Michael: Teacher Participation in Curriculum Development in a Third World Country: Lessons of a Sixth Form Geography Project. P. 143.

9) Salmon, Hazel: Analysis of Students' Syntactic Errors in Spanish: A Pedagogical Orientation. P. 89.

10) Stimpson, Alison: Opinions of Primary and All-Age School Teachers Concerning Art in Education. P. 118.

11) Thompson, Mertel: Teaching Literacy to Creole-Speakers: Problems and Possibilities. P. 158.

CARIBBEAN JOURNAL OF EDUCATION

VOL. 11, 1984

TITLE INDEX

1) Analysis of Students' Syntactic Errors in Spanish: A Pedagogical Orientation by Hazel Salmon. P. 89.

2) Language-Planning in the Creole-Speaking Caribbean by Hubert Devonish. P. 202.

3) The Literate Few: An Historical Sketch of the Slavery Origins of Black Elites in the English West Indies by Hilary Beckles. P. 19.

4) Opinions of Primary and All-Age School Teachers Concerning Art in Education by Alison Stimpson. P. 118.

5) Prediction of A-Level Performance from Past Performance and Teachers' Estimates by Elsa Leo-Rhynie. P. 36.

6) Prediction of Performance in Jamaican Teachers' Colleges by Michael C. Mitchelmore. P. 1.

7) Report on the Subregional Workshop on Teacher Training in Environmental Education for the Caribbean by Joyce Glasgow. P. 48.

8) Teacher Participation in Curriculum Development in a Third World Country: Lessons of a Sixth Form Geography Project by Michael Morrissey. P. 143.

9) Teaching Literacy to Creole-Speakers: Problems and Possibilities by Mertel Thompson. P. 158.

10) University and Nation-Building in the Commonwealth Caribbean: Early Commitments by Hopeton Gordon. P. 184.

11) The Use of Radio in Continuing Medical Education at the Professional Level for Rural Health Care Workers by Alan Fincham and Jim Halliwell. P. 218.